Profile

Kim's practice predominantly focuses on public and private mergers & acquisitions, financings, and reorganizations. She advises boards of directors and special committees on securities and M&A issues. Kim has an interest in the mining industry, and provides advice on all forms of options, leases, purchase and joint-venture agreements.

Kim understands that successful transactions and business ventures require careful planning, and she provides solutions that address immediate legal needs while safeguarding against potential future issues.

Outside of the office, Kim enjoys challenging herself in the great outdoors. She particularly enjoys ocean kayaking and volcano hiking. To date, Kim has reached the summit of four volcanoes.
