Profile

Effective advocacy is not one size fits all. The most successful litigators are those who know their audience and who can persuasively tailor their message accordingly to create the most compelling case. Imroz is one of these litigators.

Imroz has trial experience in the Supreme Court of British Columbia and has assisted with drafting advocacy materials in the Court of Appeal. Whether it is a negotiation, mediation, arbitration, chambers application, or trial, our clients benefit from Imroz's articulate, dynamic and persuasive communication skills.

From the first meeting, Imroz works closely with clients to explore all of the issues at hand and understand what a successful outcome looks like to them. This principle underlies all aspects of Imroz's practice, making him an effective and tenacious advocate for clients.
