

Tracy Wong

Paralegal

Private Company Mergers & Acquisitions
General Business Law

604 643 3136
twong@cwilson.com

Profile

Legislation is constantly changing and government processes are regularly updated as the business landscape evolves. Companies face the challenge of ensuring they are up-to-date and compliant with the latest changes as they pursue their goals.

Tracy assists with all areas of corporate work, including incorporation, dissolution, registration, corporate compliance, and other general corporate matters in all provinces and territories across Canada. Tracy supports the Private Company Mergers & Acquisitions Group in all aspects of transactions such as due diligence, purchases and sales, reorganizations and post-closing matters. With keen attention to detail, Tracy works alongside our lawyers to provide effective legal solutions to assist clients with their corporate needs. Tracy is also aware that time is a precious commodity, so she endeavours to deliver concise, comprehensive explanations that clients can easily understand and act upon.

Tracy takes satisfaction in providing business-focused and cost-effective solutions that allow clients to achieve their business goals. Before starting her paralegal career, Tracy was a software developer. Her prior experiences have helped her develop a pragmatic approach to problem-solving and the ability to quickly adapt to changing situations.

Credentials

Awards & Distinctions

- > Recipient of the Notary Foundation of BC Scholarship, Vancouver Community College, 2015

Industry Involvement

- > BC Paralegal Association, Member, 2015 to present

Education

- > Capilano University, Certificate, Paralegal, 2017
- > Vancouver Community College, Certificate, Legal Administrative Assistant, 2015
- > University of British Columbia, Bachelor of Science, 2011

Additional Languages

- > Cantonese