Profile

Jun Ho has built his practice around helping clients access both the US and Canadian securities markets.

Jun Ho is a highly trained, technical lawyer whose expertise allows him to structure transactions that work on both sides of the US/Canadian border, all with an eye to meet client goals efficiently.

Services

- > Canadian companies raising funds in the US or Canada
- > US companies raising funds in Canada or Canada
- > Canadian companies acquiring US companies
- > US companies acquiring Canadian companies

With licenses to practice both in the US (California, New York and Nevada) and Canada (British Columbia), Jun Ho helps cross-border securities transactions run efficiently.

With a Master of Laws in Transnational Business Practice, Jun Ho's in-depth knowledge gives him the ability to discern and comply with the various layers of diverse regulations with ease.

Whether it is helping clients raise funds or acquiring another company, Jun Ho helps our clients achieve their broader business goals of growth with discerning problem-solving and technical skills.
